FAITH IN ACTION

IN SOLIDARITY WITH OUR IMMIGRANT NEIGHBORS

A Conversation with Father Gianni Agostinelli

What does it mean to put faith into action when immigrant communities face growing uncertainty and fear?

Father Gianni, a Catholic priest who has served Central Florida's Hispanic community for many years, will share his experiences ministering to immigrant families and advocating for their dignity.

His work with families in Marion, Sumter, and Lake Counties offers a perspective grounded in compassion, resilience, and human dignity.

Faith calls us not only to care about injustice, but to respond to it. Join us to listen, learn, and consider what it means to stand in solidarity with our neighbors.
